

BAPTISMS IN DOLISIE

During his stay in Dolisie for the 1st Annual Orthodox Youth Conference, His Grace Panteleimon, Bishop of Brazzaville and Gabon baptized two girls, Daniella and Thekla, at the outdoor baptistery of the Holy Parish Church of St Irene.

Speaking to the two young girls, His Grace expressed the joy of the local church on their accession to Orthodoxy through baptism, and urged them to experience Orthodox faith with reliability and prudence, and practicing the Gospel preaching, becoming models of virtue for their fellow citizens.

The joyful day ended with a walk with the younger children of the Agios Efstathios Orphanage through Dolisie together with the Bishop and a visit to a patisserie.
