

DONATION OF MEDICINES TO THE MILITARY HOSPITAL IN PONTE-NOIRE

Continuing the donation of medicine to health facilities in Congo-Brazzaville for the benefit of poor citizens who are ill, His Grace Panteleimon, Bishop of Congo-Brazzaville and Gabon, together with the Vicar General of the Holy Diocese, Fr Maximos Oumba, visited the Regional Military Hospital in Pointe-Noire, where he handed over a large amount of medicines.

They were received by Colonel and Head Physician of the Hospital, who expressed wholehearted gratitude to the local Orthodox Church and to the Honourable Mr. Christos Kylikas, of the Pharmaceutical Industry, Consul of the Republic of Congo-Brazzaville in Greece, who placed at the disposal of the Holy Diocese these medicines.
