

THE FEAST OF THE DORMITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN CONGO-BRAZZAVILLE

The Feast of the Dormition of the Virgin Mary was celebrated with religious devotion and devoutness in the Parish Churches of the Holy Diocese of Congo-Brazzaville and Gabon.

His Grace Bishop Panteleimon, who on the evening of the Feast went to Brazzaville, the capital, officiated during the Divine Liturgy on the day at the Holy Church of the Resurrection of Christ, where he preached the homily, speaking of the person of the Most Holy Mother of the God.

Subsequently, following a formal invitation from the President of the Republic of the Congo, he attended the military parade on the occasion of the national anniversary of the country's independence.
