

YOUTH VISIT TO THE ORTHODOX ORPHANAGE

On 8th August 2015, His Grace Panteleimon Bishop of Congo-Brazzaville an Gabon, who was on the way to the city of Nkayi for the celebration of the Transfiguration of the Saviour at the Parish Community of the same name, went for a few hours to the "St. Efstathios" Orphanage in the city of Dolisie, to meet with the little children cared for there.

He received there the visit of a group of young people, members of the "Youth for World Peace" Movement. The young people presented their activities which they are developing to bring awareness to the youth of the Congo, for the prevalence of peace in the world, they spoke with the Bishop and the children of the Orthodox Institutions and kindly gave them an amount of clothing and food.